Whereas during the trial of the above entitled action in this Court at Fresno City, Fresno County, State of California on the 11th day of April 1891 before the undersigned, a justice of the peace, E. F. Bernhard a deputy district attorney appeared for and represented the people, and W. H. Cureton and C. L. McLane appeared for and represented the defendant Clyde Boulden; and while the said W. H. Cureton was arguing the case before the jury on behalf of the defendant, the attorney for the people E. F. Bernhard picked up a heavy glass inkstand and threw it with great force at the said attorney W. H. Cureton, striking the said W. H. Cureton on the head, inflicting a wound from which blood freely flowed; in consequence of which act an adjournment of Court was ordered necessary until the said wound could be dressed and the peace, quiet and decorum of the Court restored. For which conduct the Court then and there cited the said E. F. Bernhard to appear before it on the 14th day of April 1891 at 9 A. M. then and there to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of Court.

On the 14th day of April 1891 at the hour set, the said E. F. Bernhard appeared before this Court and asked that further action in this matter be continued until 9 A. M. April 21, 1891 because of the absence of his attorney S. G. Goucher. It is by the Court so ordered.

April 21 At the hour appointed to show cause the defendant E. F. Bernhard is present with his attorney W. R. Jacobs and announces himself as ready to proceed with his trial. Thereupon Attorney W. R. Jacobs makes a statement in behalf of defendant E. F. Bernhard, after which, the said E. F. Bernhard is sworn and testifies,
